DETAILED ACTION

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 1-7 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Slattery (US 4,508,096).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 8-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Slattery in view of Bach (US 6,439,225). Hait is considered to disclose the claimed invention, as clearly anticipated under the rejection above, except for the claimed selective configuration. Bach, another device facilitating the heating of items, is considered to disclose selective configuration at column 8 lines 5-49. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to combine the teachings of Slattery with the selective configuration feature, considered disclosed in Bach, for the purpose of permitting panel removal and separate storage to affect the attribute of panel employment in forming a side.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new grounds of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
